

GENERAL MANAGER

Our client is a multinational company in Automotive area. We are looking for a General Manager for their German/Frankfurt plant.

At least 10 years of management experience in a automotive sector and 3-5 years experienced in a similar position. Broad experience in operations, very good understanding of P&L management and extensive technical abilities in automotive sector

Able to work on own initiative as much as a part of team and experience in multinational work environments and multi lateral projects

Strong communication and interpersonal skills and strategic leader focused on business results
Commercial attitude and past experience in managing relations with OEM's top management
Excellent written and spoken English and German are mandatory

Key Responsibilities:

- Responsible for leading the plant operations covering production, quality, industrialization, maintenance and logistics processes and assuring profitability and productivity targets are achieved
- Plans, organizes and manages all the departments and effectively manages the current and new projects, and adapts the organization to the increasing production activity
- Enjoy being part of, as well as managing, motivating and training a successful and productive team and thrive in highly pressurized and challenging working environments.
- Responsible for business development and customer relationship management activities
- Follows up the performance of the subordinates and contributes to the professional development of the team

Position Reference Code: GM032020

To apply for the position and find out more, please send your CV to esperto@esperto.com.tr