

PROJECT MANAGER

Our client is an international manufacturer. We are looking for a Project Manager for their new investment.

Graduated from engineering faculties of universities
(preferably with an MBA)
Experienced in investment management,
At least 5-7 years of management experience preferably in steel industry,
Knowledge of experience in financial processes,
Certificates in PMP project management,
Excellent written and spoken English.

Key Responsibilities:

Project management focusing on two options with subsequent selection of the preferable one:

Set-up of a new production plant / acquisition of a running business.

Carrying out research and financial modeling to assist the Investment Director in identifying suitable investment opportunities,

The process of creating a new project team and engaging industry specialists and relevant experts as needed for the project,

Carrying out all work in accordance with legislative, regulatory and statutory requirements, and articulating the potential consequences of non-compliance.

To make field researches necessary for the environment, which is the places of investment (Greenfield and brownfield),
Process management and engagement of resources for design works, involvement and competitive selection of engineering companies, equipment suppliers and service providers, management of equipment procurement, construction, installation of equipment, communications and infrastructure, landscaping;

Monitoring the performance of an investment against the business plan and KPIs,

Management of financial and material flows of the project, approval and follow-up on the compliance,

Process management and task assigning for the option. Engagement of business brokers, investment banks, industry experts, auditors and other relevant consulting agencies for the option;

Position Reference Code: HOP092020

To apply for the position and find out more, please send your CV to esperto@esperto.com.tr